The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

From the MIDDLESEX JOURNAL of Auguſt 1, 1769.
To the Publiſher of the Middleſex Journal.

SIR,

By inſerting the following Letter, you will much oblige your conſtant Reader.

To his G---- the D--- of G-----N.

My LORD,

THOUGH unknown to you, my Care for your Welfare, makes me deſirous of ſhewing you your real Situation in the Capacity you now ſtand in, as firſt L--d of the T------y, that you may ſee what you have to depend on, and which is the only Way of extricating yourſelf out of that Labyrinth of Difficulties, in which you are now involved; that if Misfortunes ſhould fall heavy on you, it will be your own Fault, as you have had timely Caution to avoid them.

In examining your Conduct as a Miniſter, I ſhall addreſs myſelf to you in all Plainneſs of Speech; ſpeaking of you as you are: I will nothing extenuate, nor ſet down aught in Malice.

It is notorious that ever ſince you came into the Adminiſtration, you have been remarkable for a Man of looſe Morals in private Life, and in your Office imperious and overbearing: You have not regarded the Cry of the Americans now, notwithſtanding you were an Oppoſer of the Stamp-Act when that prevailed; you have endeavoured to enforce the Acts in being upon them; you have ſent over Troops to demand an implicit Obedience to the Dictates of a firſt Miniſter, in direct Oppoſition to the Principles of the Conſtitution, and in Violation of the Charters originally granted them; and now ſince you find that nothing can oblige them to a Compliance, you are willing to inſinuate, that they ſhall be repealed at the Sitting of the P--------t. Good Heaven! is it poſſible that the legiſlative Power of the Nation, the Bulwark of the Liberties of the People, ſhould be at the Beck of a Miniſter? But alas (ſo deſperately wicked are we grown) what will not Penſions and Bribes effect? For the Sake of a preſent pecuniary Gratification, they will ſell their Country and themſelves; they will tamely give up thoſe Liberties which our Anceſtors bought with their Blood; they will involve us all in Bondage, rather than fail in one Point of their Duty to you: While they baſk under the Sunſhine of your Favour, they are forging Chains which themſelves muſt one Day wear, and when they have done their utmoſt, when they have eſtabliſhed the Power of a Miniſter beyond the Poſſibility of Controul, you may diſcard them as uſeleſs and unprofitable. But to return.

Do you, my Lord, think it poſſible to give Retribution to your Country for the Loſs of the American Trade? Not all your Fortune, your Family Connections, and all the Intereſt you can make, nor even the laying down your Life, will ever attone for that one Meaſure of yours. In ſtriving to enforce Acts on America, you have ſet them at Work in raiſing Manufactures among themſelves; and though your Grace ſhould think fit, out of the Mercifulneſs of your Diſpoſition, to repeal them, and by that Means reſtore that Harmony between Great-Britain and her Colonies (which but for you had never been diſturbed) yet, in the Courſe of a few Years, thoſe Manufactures will arrive at Perfection, and then, when they have almoſt every Thing among themſelves, what is to become of Old England? How muſt the Government be ſupported? In caſe of a future War, where is the Money to be found? The Debt of the Nation is already ſo enormous, that though every Neceſſary of Life is taxed to ſuch a Degree, it will hardly produce a Sufficiency to anſwer the Intereſt of the preſent Debt, together with diſcharging the Penſions (for ſuch a Number of which, we may thank your Grace) ſo that the poor People can ſcarcely live.

Is it reaſonable then, do you think, that the People who ſupport your Grace, to whom you are no more than a Servant, of whom you actually receive Wages, ſhould periſh, while you revel in Riot and Debauchery, and only becauſe you think them the Scum of the Earth? No, my Lord, never expect it; if you but imagine it, you are indeed moſt miſerably miſtaken; but then you waver ſo in your Sentiments, and are changeable as the Wind; and being in Place under the Influence of the E--l of B--e, forgetting every Tye of Friendſhip and Gratitude, you gave up the Man whom you once honoured with the Title of Friend, becauſe he was hated by a certain Thane, for expoſing his Errors, and ſetting his Character before the Public in its proper Colours; you were not content with withdrawing your Protection from him, but muſt perſecute him with unrelenting Malice. But there you acted without Caution; for ſeeking to cruſh a ſingle Individual, you violated the Right of a whole Nation, and from a private Affair, you have made it the Concern of the whole Body of the People.

Surely, my Lord, you ſlept while this was done, for you could not be ſo ſhamefully ignorant of the Sentiments of the People, as to ſuppoſe they would ſit down tamely, and let ſuch an Inſult paſs unnoticed. Had you only excluded Mr. Wilkes from the H---e of C----ns, and let the Middleſex Freeholders have rechoſen him, they would not have repined, ſo long as they had the Shadow of a Choice; but to put in one ſo arbitrarily, one who before was poſſeſſed of a Seat, and who vacated it only to fly in the Face of the Nation, is ſuch a Blot to your Grace's Adminiſtration, that even the Tyranny of a Walpole, never could come up to. You have now ſhewn openly and clearly your Intention of enſlaving a free People, if in your Power; and if you do not effect it, it is not from Want of Inclination, but Ability.

Now, I would aſk your G---e, how you will ſcreen yourſelf from the Revenge of a People ſo inhumanly injured; it is not to be ſuppoſed that you can think your being deſcended from a ſpurious Branch of the Blood Royal, will indemnify you, nor can you imagine that L--d B--e will prove a Barrier, ſtrong enough againſt the Cries of a whole Nation: In what Manner then can you ſhield yourſelf? Might I adviſe how you might make ſome little Reparation for the many Ills you have done; firſt, undo all you have done, and then retire to your Country Seat, and pray to GOD to pardon the Multitude of Sins you have committed; and as you now have entered into chaſter Connections, be ſure to endeavour, that the Remainder of your Life may be as conſpicuous for Holineſs and Goodneſs, as it has been hitherto for Lewdneſs and Infamy. A BRITON.

The following was deſigned for our laſt, but Want of Room obliged us to defer it.

To the PUBLIC.

Annapolis, in Maryland, September 26, 1769.

CAPTAIN ANDREW BRYSON, of the Ship Betſey, arrived at this Place laſt Week from Briſtol, which Place he left the 18th of July, as appears by the Papers lodged in the Cuſtom-Houſe. Immediately on the Arrival of the Ship, we, with ſome other Merchants in the City, made Enquiry what Goods were on board the ſaid Ship, which were found to conſiſt only of an Adventure of the Captain's, amounting to about 700l. Sterling; which Goods being purchaſed, and the Ship ſailed, before the Reſolutions for Non-importation in this Province could be heard of in England; it was our Opinion that Captain Bryſon had a Right to diſpoſe of his Goods: A few Days ago we purchaſed of him Part of the above mentioned Goods, amounting to £217:10: 1 Sterling Coſt, amongſt which were Goods to the Amount of £133 of thoſe Kinds enumerated in the general Aſſociation, entered into the 22d of June laſt, as Goods not to be imported; and though they were ſhipped before theſe Reſolutions could be known in England, yet as the Purchaſe is thought by many Gentlemen to be repugnant to the general Spirit of the Aſſociation, and of the Fifth Article in particular, we, as ſoon as we knew the Sentiments of theſe Gentlemen, determined and declared our Reſolution, to deliver the ſaid enumerated Goods immediately, to be ſtored until the Repeal of the Revenue Acts, as we are clearly of Opinion, that wherever the leaſt Doubt ariſes, the Interpretation ſhould be in Favour of diſcouraging any Perſons whatever, from importing or buying Goods contrary to the true Spirit of the Aſſociation. We have therefore this Day, of our own free Will, delivered the above mentioned Goods into the Poſſeſſion of Meſſieurs Lancelot Jacques, Charles Wallace, Robert Couden, John Brice, Joſhua Johnſon, and Colin Campbell, who have ſtored the ſame for our Uſe, and at our Riſk, until they can be releaſed, agreeable to the full Intent and Meaning of the Aſſociation. JAMES DICK and STEWART.

In No. 2127 of this Paper we publiſhed an Account of the late Fire at Antigua; another is ſince come to Hand, which concludes as follows.

ONE Thing is ſurpriſingly ſingular, not a ſingle Merchant's Store is left in the whole Place.---All the Granaries, with their Contents, were deſtroyed; 17,000 Barrels of Salt Proviſions, 14,000 Buſhels of Corn, and 1000 Tierces of Rice, were deſtroyed. The Rent-roll of the Town is 37,000l. Currency per Annum, 18,000l. of which is deſtroyed, which, at twelve and an Half Year's Purchaſe, amounts to 225,000l. the other Damages ſuſtained by the Loſs of Proviſions, Goods, and Devaſtation of Buildings, amounts to a far greater Sum; ſo that according to the moſt moderate Computation, the whole cannot be leſs than Three Hundred Thouſand Pounds Sterling.

Thus fell St. John's, the Metropolis of an Iſland, the Pride and Glory of her Siſters, the Seat of Induſtry, the Nurſe of Merchants, the beloved Manſion of generous Hoſpitality, and the central Mart of the Weſt-Indies! whoſe Harbour was ever crouded with Fleets from the four Winds, and whoſe Wealth and Grandeur was equalled by no Place of its Magnitude. Yeſterday, an opulent, rich, well-built Town; To-day, a Pile of Ruins, Confuſion and ſmoaky Aſhes! Yeſterday, its Inhabitants giving each other a chearful Good-morrow; To-day, meeting with Tears and Dejection in their Countenances, reciprocally recounting their Loſſes to each other, and can hardly trace the Veſtiges of their late Habitations. Let ſuch as were not Spectators to the tremendous Scene, only figure to themſelves the Circumference of ſuch a Flame, the Noiſe and Cruſh of Houſes falling, the frequent dreadful Exploſions of others blown up, the convulſed Vortex of fiery Flakes in the Air, with the Shrieks and Lamentations of the unhappy Sufferers, intermixed with the Yellings of the Negroe Savages; I ſay, let them paint theſe in their Imaginations, and with-hold their Pity and Commiſeration, if they can.---In ſhort, the Ruins of the Place would beggar all Deſcription; for it is impoſſible by Words, to raiſe an adequate Idea of our Diſtreſſes.

In this general Calamity, the Council and Aſſembly have uſed every poſſible Means to prevent the Negroes from plundering the Sufferers, to detect and bring to Juſtice ſuch as have been embezzeling or concealing Goods or other Effects, and to reſtore ſome Degree of Regularity and Order amongſt the diſtreſſed Inhabitants of this ruinated Place. Every one ſeems eagerly ſolicitous to do Good, and to alleviate the Miſeries of their afflicted Neighbours. The Merchants too, to their Honor be it ſpoke, vie with each other in ſelling whatever Part of their Proviſions they have ſaved from the Fire to their Fellow Sufferers at the uſual Prices; generouſly ſcorning to ſnatch at an Advantage the general Diſtreſs might give them of enhancing.

May other Nations, who read the Fate and Fall of this hapleſs Place, without further Supplication, think on its Diſtreſſes, and exert their Influence in contributing to its Relief: Perhaps the dejected Inhabitants of St. John's may yet be able to raiſe its Walls from their Rubbiſh and Ruins, and may God aſſiſt and proſper their Endeavours."

From the BOSTON GAZETTE, Sept. 19, 1769.

To the PUBLIC.

WHEREAS I the Subſcriber did, on the 10th Day of laſt May, purchaſe of William Hambleton Scholar, a Bank Bill of England, and two private Bankers promiſſary Notes, to the Value of Fifty-one Pounds Ten Shillings Sterling; which Bills I did remit to my Correſpondents at London, ſince which ſaid Bank Bill, and Promiſſary Notes, have been publickly proteſted as abſolute Forgeries, by GYLES LOARE, principal Notary of the City of London: And I am therefore authorized and requeſted by the Governor of the Bank of England, to advertiſe ſaid William Hambleton Scholar, as a notorious Cheat, and uſe my beſt Endeavours that he may be apprehended, and ſecured in any of his Majeſty's Goals in America, that he may be brought to Juſtice.

The Company of Bankers alſo requeſt the Publiſhers of the ſeveral News-Papers, through the ſeveral Provinces, to publiſh this Advertiſement, as the Public are greatly intereſted in this Affair, as ſaid William Hambleton Scholar has about fifty Bank Bills, all ſtruck off of a Copper-Plate in the neateſt Manner, and ſo near the true Ones, as to be hardly perceivable except by thoſe who are uſed to them; and it is uncertain which Way he may travel, therefore it is preſumed that the detecting ſo great a Villain, will be doing a great Service to the Public. He has been twice tranſported, and the laſt Time upon Pain of Death, if ever he returned. Yet had the conſummate Impudence to pretend that he was Captain of a Brig, named the William and Mary, and that ſhe was wrecked near New-York, alſo ſhewed me a Proteſt for the ſaid Brig, ſigned by two Juſtices of the Peace belonging to New-York, whoſe Names I cannot remember, which is an entire Falſhood, and the Names forged. PHILIP FREEMAN, junior.

N. B. The ſaid William Hambleton Scholar is a young Man, of about 23 Years of Age, 5 Feet 4 Inches high, wears his own Hair; when I purchaſed the Bills, he had only two Suits of Cloaths, the one a light mixed Broadcloth, trimmed with black, the other a Pompadour Colour, trimmed with the Colour of the Cloth.

GLASGOW, June 24. The trial made in this neighbourhood, of raiſing fine flax after the Flanders method, is likely to anſwer extremely well, and much beyond expectation.

July 27. On Wedneſday, the 19th, the Court of Seſſion determined the queſtion with reſpect to the Dukedom of Douglas and Angus, between the Right Hon. the Earl of Selkirk, and the Right Hon. Archibald Douglas, of Douglas, Eſq; when the Court adhered to the interlocutor pronounced the 9th of December 1762, finding Mr. Douglas had right to the Dukedom, and aſſoilzied Mr. Douglas from the action of reduction and declarator, raiſed againſt him by the Earl of Selkirk.

By letters from London we hear, that two trading houſes in that city, are preparing to execute very large orders, in the extraordinary way, to North-America, in conſequence of the reſolutions lately adopted concerning the colonies.

Extract of a letter from Kilmarnock, July 31.

"At the fair in this place, on Thurſday laſt, there was a great ſhow of both Scotch and Iriſh horſes, which ſold at high prices; likewiſe ſeveral hundred packs of wool were ſold at this fair, from 40s. to 7 l. ſterling a pack.

"Same day the woollen manufacturers made a proceſſion through the town, repreſenting all the different branches of that uſeful manufacture, from the wool's being taken from the ſheep's back, to the finiſhing it in all the different kinds of carpets, blankets, and cloths, made here, a ſpecimen of each kind being exhibited to publick view. The workmen were all clothed in the proper dreſs of that part of the work performed by them, carrying their implements in their hands, and accompanied with drums, violins, and other muſical inſtruments. They made a fine appearance, and there being a very great number of hands, young and old, employed in that buſineſs here, it ſhewed a better repreſentation of the ſpirit of induſtry, than any thing of the kind ever ſeen in this place. And on Friday the journeymen ſhoemakers in to_ , who are very numerous, made a proceſſion with King Criſpin in all his Royal robes, attended by his body guards, paraded through the different ſtreets of the town, and afterwards dined together in the meal market, no houſe in town being large enough to contain them."

M---------l Paragraphs, only to ſerve a preſent Purpoſe, and amuſe the People.

A Pardon for Mr. Wilkes.---He does not want nor deſire one.

A new Miniſtry.---It muſt be a very motley One;---none of the real great Friends of the Conſtitution, and their much injured, abuſed Country, will ever join with any of thoſe who have ſo long meditated the Ruin of both.

Repeal of the late Taxes in America.---The Americans well remember, that to appeaſe them for a ſhort Time, they repealed the odious Stamp-Act, and ſoon laid a much heavier One; the ſame Men will moſt certainly play the ſame Game. They may repeal the laſt Tax, and lay on another ſtill more grievous.

The THANE artfully throws out ſuch Inſinuations to quiet the People; but till there is a Change of Men and Meaſures, and an honeſt unbribed and uncorrupt ----- of ------, the Nation can never hope for the Reſtoration of their ancient Laws, Liberties and Conſtitutions.

One Deſign of the Thane and his preſent odious M----y, is to preſerve themſelves from the Rage of an incenſed People, which they have great Reaſon to apprehend.---The next is to ſtop Petitions of Grievances, which it is not in their Power to do, though every Art has been tried in vain; and when they are neither to be bribed nor intimidated, they are cajolling, and inſinuating palliative Meaſures, they never intend to purſue.

Let the honeſt Senſe of Millions be laid dutifully before our gracious Monarch, who will eaſily diſtinguiſh between the late flattering Addreſſes, corruptly procured by the Tools of the M------y, and the honeſt Petitions of 99 in an Hundred, groaning under unſupportable Grievances; the Loſs of their Trade, and the Loſs of their moſt eſſential Liberties.

The People of England patiently ſuffer a long Time; but when thoroughly rouſed, have always got the better of a bad M------y, eſpecially when they openly attempt their ſacred Birthrights, and Freedom of Election of their Members, who are their Servants, and anſwerable to them for the Breaches of the Truſt repoſed in them.

Theſe are the Sentiments of all the honeſt independent Freeholders in England and Wales, and who are determined to ſupport their antient Laws, MAGNA CHARTA, and the Bill of Rights.

A few Days ago an Emetic was adminiſtred to the Right Hon. Lord H----d, and, to the Surprize of all preſent, he caſt up One Million Sterling. His Phyſicians order the Emetic to be continued every Month, till December 1772, when Forty Millions, at preſent unaccounted for, will be returned without Intereſt.

"As to the political Conduct of your Country, you have the Approbation of every Engliſhman; nor was your Addreſs to the King treated with that Diſreſpect which had been ſhewn on former like Occaſions. In ſhort, the Acts already paſt to the Injury of America, are to be repealed, and no more ſuch attempted for the future. This you may rely on, as I have ſuch Information as puts the Truth of it beyond a Doubt."

Extract of a Letter to a Gentleman in Virginia, from an eminent Merchant in London, who reſided many Years in this Colony, and upon the Death of his Partner removed with his Family, all Virginians, to London, where he has proſecuted a very extenſive Buſineſs, to the mutual Satisfaction and Advantage of his numerous Correſpondents and himſelf. "LONDON, July 28, 1769.

"I had, as you obſerve, heard of the Diſſolution of the Aſſembly of Virginia, and wiſh I had the Honour of having my Name recorded in the Liſt to the Reſolves. We now, on this Side, make as many Proſelytes in that Cauſe as Wh---f---d in his, and I hope, at leaſt, to as good Purpoſes; for it is my real Opinion the Laws will, nay muſt, be repealed at the Opening of the next Seſſion of Parliament. NEW-YORK, October 9.

Mr. GAINE,

The following Agreement you'll pleaſe to publiſh in your next Monday's Paper, it being entered into by the major Part of the Merchants who have Goods lodged in the public Warehouſe in this City.

New-York, 21ſt September, 1769.

To Mr. JOSEPH ALLICOCKE.

SIR,

THE Goods that you have, or may be ſent to your Store by us the Subſcribers, are to remain there, and not to be taken out on any Pretence whatever, until the Arrival of ſome Veſſel with Goods from England, that ſhall be ſhipped after the Revenue Act is repealed.

N. B. It is the true Intent and Meaning of us the Subſcribers, that in caſe any Perſon or Perſons (who have ſhipped us, or either of us, any Goods contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of all or either of the Agreements ſubſiſting among the Merchants and Traders of this City) ſhall give Orders to have them ſhipped back to England, that we ſhall have the Privilege of returning them; the foregoing Agreement notwithſtanding."

On Saturday laſt his Majeſty's Commiſſioners, appointed under the Great Seal of Great-Britain, for ſettling the Boundary Line between this Colony and New-Jerſey, pronounced their Decree. The Commiſſion was opened on the 18th Day of July laſt, by the following Gentlemen, to wit,

CHARLES STEUART, Eſq; Preſident.

Andrew Elliot, Eſq;	Charles Morris, Eſq;
Samuel Holland, Eſq;	Peyton Randolph, Eſq;
Andrew Oliver, Eſq;	Jared Ingerſoll, Eſq;

Some Time before the Decree was given, Mr. Randolph was called away by neceſſary Avocations of a public Nature.---The Decree was pronounced by four of the remaining Commiſſioners, to wit, Mr. Preſident, Mr. Elliot, Mr. Oliver, and Mr. Ingerſoll; who determined "the Boundary Partition Line between the two "Colonies to be, a direct and ſtraight Line from the Fork at "the Mouth of Mahacamack River, formed by its Junction with "the River called Delaware (as they term it) or the Fiſh-Kill, in "the Latitude of 41° 21′, and 37″, to the Lattitude of 41° "on Hudſon's River, found by their Surveyors to be at a marked "Rock on the Weſt Side of Hudſon's River, 79 Chains and 27 "Links to the Southward, on a Meridian from Sneydon's Houſe, "formerly Corbet's."

Though by this Decree the Court-Houſe and Church in Orange Town, is left a few Rods to the Northward of the Line decreed; yet upwards of 150 Families, ſettled in that antient County Town, will, if the Decree be confirmed, be diſmembred from this Colony, and expoſed to utter Ruin.

Influenced by this Conſideration, and a Regard to the Royal Commiſſion, which authorized the Commiſſioners to ſettle the Boundary Line, upon Principles of Juſtice and Equity, Samuel Holland, and Charles Morris, Eſquires, diſſented from the Decree of the Court; and by their Diſſent, which was entered in the Records of the Court, immediately following the Decree, they, in Subſtance, declare it, among other Things, as their Opinion, That a Line from the Station on Hudſon's River, which, in the Year 1686, was ſolemnly fixed by the ſeveral Governments, as the Partition Point on Hudſon's River, to the Mouth of Mahacamack, would be now conformable to the ancient Grants, Juriſdiction and Poſſeſſions of both Colonies; and therefore more agreeable to his Majeſty's benign Intentions, in directing the Boundary Line to be ſettled upon Principles of Juſtice and Equity.

As by the above mentioned Decree, his Majeſty's Intereſt, to the Amount of many Hundred Thouſand Acres of Land, and a vaſt Number of antient Poſſeſſions held by Patents under this Colony, are totally ceded to New-Jerſey, and the antient Juriſdiction of this Colony greatly encroached on, the Agents, on the Part of New-York, conceiving it to be their Duty to appeal from the Decree, immediately after the ſame was pronounced, tendered to the Court their Appeal to his Majeſty in Privy Council; and prayed that it might be entered, and the Proceedings forthwith tranſmitted:---But, though the Court permitted it to be entered, they refuſed to receive it as an Appeal, conceiving that by the Terms of the Royal Commiſſion, they were not at Liberty to receive an Appeal, till after the Expiration of two Months, from the Time of pronouncing the Decree: And for this Purpoſe they adjourned, to meet at Hartford, in Connecticut, on the 8th Day of December next.

Yeſterday ſailed the Earl of Halifax Packet, Captain Boulderſon, with the Mail for Falmouth.

On Saturday Sevennight, one Kelly, an Oyſterman, Mitchner, a Tavern-keeper, and one or two more, having, it is ſaid, made an Information to the Cuſtom-Houſe Officers, which occaſioned the Seizure of a few Caſks of Wine belonging to the Mate of a Veſſel, and was, it is ſaid, the whole Saving he had made of three Years Wages: The Populace being greatly incenſed againſt the Informers, after ſeveral Days Search, found and ſeized them, placed and tied them in Carts, and carted them through great Part of the City, attended with many Thouſand People, who huzza'd, inſulted and treated them with the utmoſt Indignity, often beſmearing their Faces and Clothes with Tar, and ſprinkling them with Feathers, ſo that they made a moſt hideous Appearance, and certainly felt as miſerable as they looked; and had no little Reaſon to fear that their Lives were in Danger.---However, they eſcaped without any other Puniſhment, than being thus exhibited as public Spectacles of Scorn and Deteſtation. We hear the Magiſtrates interpoſed, but were for ſome Time unable to ſtop the Cavalcade, till the Populace had in ſome Meaſure ſatiated their Reſentment.

PHILADELPHIA, October 12.

By the HONOURABLE

JOHN PENN, Eſq;

Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennſylvania, and Counties of New-Caſtle, Kent, and Suſſex, on Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by an Act of General Aſſembly of this Province, paſſed in the third Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, entituled, "An Act for the Preſervation of Fiſh in the "Rivers Delaware, Saſquehanna, and the Lehigh, commonly "called, The Weſtern Branch of Delaware;" it was, among other Things, enacted, that if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, after the Publication thereof, ſhould erect, build, or ſet up, repair, or maintain, or ſhould be aiding, aſſiſting, or abetting, in erecting, building, ſetting up, repairing, or maintaining any Wear, Rack, Baſkets, Fiſhing Dam, Pound, or other Device whatſoever; or that ſhould fix or faſten any Net or Nets acroſs, or in any of ſaid Rivers, or any Part thereof, by which the Fiſh might be obſtructed from going up the ſaid Rivers, or that ſhould take, deſtroy, or ſpoil any Spawn, Fry or Brood of Fiſh, or any Kind of Fiſh whatſoever, in any ſuch Wear, Rack, Baſkets, Fiſhing Dam, Pound, or other Device aforeſaid, every ſuch Perſon or Perſons, ſo offending, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of that Act, being legally convicted thereof, by the Oath or Affirmation of one or more credible Witneſſes, or by his own Confeſſion, ſhould forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds, lawful Money of this Government, for every ſuch Offence, or ſuffer ſix Months Impriſonment, without Bail or Mainprize; with this Proviſo, that ſo much of the ſaid Act, as relates to the Wears, Racks, Baſkets, Fiſhing Dams, Pounds, and other Devices aforeſaid, already erected, or thereafter to be erected, in the River Delaware, ſhould be, and ſhould be deemed, held, conſtrued, and taken to be of no Force, Validity or Virtue, until a Bill for remedying the ſame Miſchiefs and Inconveniences, thereby intended to be remedied in the ſaid River, ſhould be paſſed and enacted into a Law by the Legiſlature of the Province of New-Jerſey, and be in full Force and Virtue; and that ſo much of the ſaid Act, as relates to the Wears, Racks, Baſkets, Fiſhing Dams, Pounds, and other Devices aforeſaid, already erected, or thereafter to be erected in the River Saſquehanna, ſhould be, and ſhould be deemed, held, conſtrued, and taken to be of no Force, Validity or Virtue, until a Bill for remedying the ſame Miſchiefs and Inconveniences thereby intended to be remedied in the ſaid River, ſhould be paſſed and enacted into a Law, by the Legiſlature of the Province of Maryland, and be in full Force and Virtue. AND WHEREAS, ſince the paſſing of the ſaid Act, the Legiſlatures of the Provinces of Maryland and New-Jerſey, have reſpectively enacted Laws for the Preſervation of the Fiſh in the Rivers Saſquehanna and Delaware, and for remedying the ſame Miſchiefs and Inconveniences in thoſe Rivers, which were intended to be remedied by the aforementioned Law of this Province. AND WHEREAS by one other Act of General Aſſembly of this Province, paſſed in the ſaid third Year of his preſent Majeſty's Reign, entituled, "An Act for making the Ri"ver Schuylkill navigable, and for the Preſervation of the Fiſh in "the ſaid River," it was, among other Things, enacted, that if any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, from and after the Publication thereof, ſhould erect, build, ſet up, repair, or maintain any Wear, Rack, Baſket, Fiſhing Dam, Pound, or other Device or Obſtruction whatſoever, within the ſaid River, or that ſhould fix or faſten any Net or Nets, acroſs the ſame, or any Part thereof, whereby the Fiſh might be obſtructed from going up the ſaid River, or that ſhould take, deſtroy or ſpoil any Spawn, Fry or Brood of Fiſh, or any Kind of Fiſh whatſoever, in any ſuch Wear, Rack, Dam, Baſket, Pound, or other Device aforeſaid, every ſuch Perſon, ſo offending, being thereof legally convicted, by the Oath or Affirmation of one or more credible Witneſſes, or by his own Confeſſion, ſhould forfeit and pay the Sum of Twenty Pounds, lawful Money of this Government, for every ſuch Offence, or ſuffer ſix Months Impriſonment, without Bail or Mainprize.

AND WHEREAS it hath been repreſented to me, that notwithſtanding the ſalutary Proviſions made in the ſaid Laws, a large Number of Wears, Dams, Baſkets, and other Obſtructions, have been, and daily continue to be erected in the ſaid Rivers, whereby the good Intentions of the Legiſlature are rendered ineffectual, and the Miſchiefs intended to be remedied, remain unremoved; I HAVE therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of the Council, to iſſue this my Proclamation, hereby ſtrictly charging and commanding all Perſons whatſoever, to yield the moſt exact Obedience to the ſaid Laws, under the Penalties therein impoſed: AND I do alſo require and enjoin the ſeveral Magiſtrates, Sheriffs, and all other Officers for the ſeveral Counties adjoining the ſaid Rivers, to pay due Attention to the ſaid Laws, and to exert their utmoſt Endeavours to enforce a faithful and ſtrict Obſervance of them.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the ſaid Province, at Philadelphia, the Seventh Day of October, in the Ninth Year of his Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of Our Lord One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty-nine.

On Saturday next the GENERAL ASSEMBLY of this Province meets here.

On Wednesday, the 4th Instant, the CORPORATION, lately erected in the Provinces of New-York, New-Jersey and Pennsylvania, "for the Relief of the Widows and Children of Clergymen "in the Communion of the Church of England in America," consisting of the Episcopal Clergy, and several of the principal Gentlemen of the Laity, of the Provinces aforesaid, convened at BURLINGTON; where, having prepared some Articles relative to their Institution, and presented an Address of Thanks to his Excellency GOVERNOR FRANKLIN, which he received and answered, in a very obliging Manner, they adjourned to this City, in order to have a Majority of Members, to settle their Plan, &c. And on Tuesday last, at 11 o'Clock, the Corporation proceeded to CHRIST CHURCH, where an excellent, catholic, and truly pathetic Discourse, adapted to the Occasion, was delivered by the Rev. Dr. SMITH, Provost of the College of Philadelphia, before a polite and attentive Auditory.-----After Service a generous Collection was made at the Chuch Door, for the Benefit of the Institution.

The Corporation then waited, in a Body, upon his Honour the GOVERNOR of this Province, with an Address of Thanks for the Readiness and Chearfulness with which, upon their first Application, he had granted them a Charter: To which Address his Honour was pleased to return a kind Answer, and to favour them with his Company at Dinner:---After which, several fundamental Laws and Constitutions, for the well-ordering and managing the Affairs of the Corporation, were framed and settled, 38 Members being present.

Last Week the Brig Carolina, Captain Yorke, arrived here from Antigua, having, on the 4th of September, in Lat. 24, Long. 64, met with a most violent Gale of Wind, that continued 48 Hours, in which he lost every Thing off his Deck, and the Vessel was laid on her Beam Ends for 24 Hours, shifted her Hold, was obliged to cut away his Foremast, and received considerable Damage in his Sails and Rigging.

Captain Sutton, from Barbados, on the 14th ult. in Lat. 16, spoke with Captain Cox, in a Brig from this Port for the Grenades, out 28 Days, all well; and a little to the Southward of Cape-Hatteras, he spoke with Captain Roberts, in a Ship from the Grenades for Virginia, out 17 Days, all well.

By Captain Biddle, from the Bay of Honduras, we learn, that Provisions were very scarce there; that he left in the Bay the Brig Grampus, Captain Savage, of this Port, near ready for sailing for Bristol; Captain Rogers, for this Place; Captains Bryson, Benson, and 4 or 5 other New-Yorkers; and several Rhode-Islandmen, whose Names he did not learn. On the 14th of September, in the Night, off of Cape Florida, he passed very near a Wreck, but could not discover what she was; the next Day he saw a Brig ashore on the Martiers; and on the 28th, off Cape-Hatteras, he spoke a Sloop, Captain Ball, from Antigua for North-Carolina, 15 Days out, all well.

Sunday Night last, between Nine and Ten o'Clock, one James Hedges, a labouring Man, at Kensington, inhumanly murdered his Wife, by cutting her Throat from Ear to Ear, after which he made his Escape; but strict Search is making after him. He is about 5 Feet 10 Inches high, thin Visage, broad shouldered, lame of one Foot, by a Cut with an Axe, and wore blue Plush Breeches. It is hoped all well-disposed Persons will lend their Assistance in bringing the Villain to Justice.

Yesterday an infamous INFORMER was laid Hold of by a Number of People, near the Drawbridge, who ducked him, and afterwards besmeared him all over with Tar, then covered him with Feathers, and led him thro' the Streets to the Pillory, in which they fixed him for some Time; after which they took him down, and paraded through the public Streets for near two Hours, and then let him go, without doing any Harm to his Person.

ARRIVALS.

THESE are to give notice to the public, that whereas my husband proved beneficial to many grievously afflicted with rheumatic pains, in this and several of the neighbouring colonies, in curing perfectly divers persons that were rendered unable of moving; and as he is dead, and all his medicines are left in my hands, and so consequently I look upon it a duty incumbent upon me to give this public notice, that if any person is afflicted as above, I can perform the cure with the same perfection as my husband did, by making application to me, now residing in Philadelphia, beyond the New-Market, in Third-street, at the Widow Anderson's. § ANNA SHEA.

Chester Goal, October 9, 1769.

THIS day was committed to my custody, an Irishman, who calls himself Joseph Bennet, he is a thick faced man, pock marked, and of a pale countenance, and very mild spoken, about 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, and well set, had on when committed, a spotted fwanskin jacket, an old broadcloth ditto, without sleeves, and blue shalloon lining, an old pair of cloth breeches, old shirt, an old pair of shoes, and no stockings, an old felt hat; he very much answers the description of Thomas Elton, a servant of Mr. Rutland, near Annapolis, who broke out of Baltimore goal with several others, the 18th of September last, and advertised by the Sheriff of Baltimore in the Pennsylvania Gazette, No. 2128. His master, if any, or any person that has any claim, are desired to come in five weeks, and pay cost, or he will be discharged. ‡ JOSEPH THOMAS, Goaler.

WAS taken from the subscriber, living in West Nottingham, Chester county, by a man named Joseph Williams, a miller by trade, a brown horse, about 12 or 13 hands high, 8 years old, branded with a W on the hip, and 2 on the shoulder of the nigh side, a short switch tail, his hoofs very much broke, but it is very probable he has got him shod, as he took a pair of shoes with him, likewise an old saddle with new stirrup leathers, and the tree broke behind, and a new bridle with three buckles, one at the middle of the rein; the man is about 40 years of age, nigh 6 feet high, thin visage, of a pale complexion, lightish eyes, with his teeth out before, and is remarkably talkative, had on when he went away, a striped holland shirt and trowsers, lightish coloured stockings, a long fly frock, with metal buttons before and on the hips, with round turned up cuffs, a flannel Jacket, with blue spots, his hat miller like, he took with him 3 shirts, and a pair of trowsers, the same of the frock, likewise took from me a great coat with the cuffs very much worn, a brown piece set in the inside of the cuff, and a lightish piece set in the tail; I heard since he absconded that he lately came out of Chester goal for stealing horses, and was twice whipped for the fact. Whoever secures the said man and horse, so that he may be brought to punishment, shall have FIVE POUNDS reward, and for the horse alone, FORTY SHILLINGS, with reasonable charges, paid by me
